

Featherlight - Thomas Hauenstein

Don't you worry today - some things a far beyond our control
And all we carry today - might as well be featherlight tomorrow

Featherlight, featherlight to you

If you find your senses dark, not a thought could even cut the night
Find a little spark for you - rise it up to make you feel alright

Featherlight to feel alright for you, featherlight to feel alright for me - hmmmhmmm

Dub - dub - dub ... :-)

To leave somebody on your way - is never easy even if it's meant to be At least a few of the good ones stay - no matter where you are, no matter where you might be.

So don't you worry today - some things a far beyond our control
And all we carry today - might as well be featherlight tomorrow

Featherlight , featherlight to me,
featherlight, featherlight to you Featherlight to feel alright for me, featherlight to feel alright for you
